Absent was member Rebekah Pratt.

Dr. Shaver-Hood recognized retired teacher, Ronnie Oliver, who passed away last week. Instead of a moment of silence, Mary Morgan played the song "Who Let the Dogs Out" as this was a song he would play.

Chair Bacchiocchi announced the meeting was being taped for broadcast by WCTV and an audio recording by Mrs. Ruiz.

PUBLIC COMMENT

Citizen Rhonda Veugen made a statement seeking support on Tuesday, November 6th to vote Yes on Question 4. She thanked the School Committee, the Board of Selectmen, the Finance Committee and others for their support leading up to today. We need to talk about the need and the opportunity Wareham cannot pass up. There is information on the district website. The state will match our investment. So she urged a Yes vote for our community and our future.

GOOD NEWS

Superintendent Shaver-Hood invited student Indiana Troupe to share his good news. Indiana briefly explained his involvement with Fuel Up for Play 60 and how at this summer's Student Ambassador Summit he won the grant for mobile desks.

MTA Resolution for Funding our Future

WEA Vice President Michele LeFrancois formally requested the School Committee to sign and pass the resolution supporting the MTA's new initiative Fund our Future. Massachusetts is underfunding education. In 1993 the foundation budget was set and in 2003 the state no longer is using their own formula. The funding for our schools must be fixed, modified, or changed. The estimated deficit in Wareham is over $2 million. In July 2018, new legislation was brought forward but did not make it to the state for a vote. We want to bring this issue to the forefront and have legislation in the spring 2019 again. Full funding public education is our hope for all communities. Mrs. LeFrancois read the resolution (see list of documents).

Mr. Flaherty moved to support the resolution, seconded by Mrs. Morgan.

Request for 8th Grade Class Trip to Washington D.C.

Principal Palladino, Assistant Principal Freitas, and student Indiana Troupe requested a class trip to Washington DC for experiential learning. This is an optional student field trip from March 31 - April 3, 2019. The 8th graders were surveyed and 87% of the students expressed interest. The cost would be $599 per student with 1 chaperone for every 10 students.

Principal Palladino stated that he has quotes from four companies at this time and the price includes all expenses. There is a full itinerary included. Indiana shared one of the fundraising ideas.

The Washington DC trip for 8th graders was a tradition they wished to bring back.

Mrs. Spear moved to approve the request for an 8th Grade Class Trip to Washington D.C., seconded by Mr. Flaherty.

In answer to members' questions, they are working towards innovation, pairing up students with middle school students, and using the library to open in December. The morning meetings have been successful as well as adapting from a 3-teacher team to a 2-teacher team.

Discussion on data test results DRA included accelerated growth at 117 from fall to winter but winter to spring drops to 56 or 40%. The issue may be FAST is given right after MCAS but this is being studied.

Dr. Schwamb reported that some of the data was revised because she used the early accountability data from the state then the state released numbers to the public that were different.

Mr. Flaherty commented on the 3rd grade Math MCAS results exceeding with the new test and that 2nd graders were prepared for the 3rd grade test.

Dr. Schwamb stated that the English MCAS results were overall phenomenal. She is not sure how the state is going to measure this data between the legacy test vs new test.

Builds a Collective Vision

Establishes an Environment of Student Agency

In answer to members' questions, the middle years IB program is an all or nothing proposition. We have been a candidate school for the last 3 years, now a partnership in grades 6-10.

AN AMERICAN MANUFACTURER

Chair Bacchiocchi asked members to come back at another meeting for a presentation on project lead the way. She was impressed with the community service projects, the positive improvements in the surveys and the plans to manage student behavior.

In response to discipline concerns, Principal Cote stated that we have non-negotiables as a collective vision. Her #1 priority is not accepting disruption in the classroom by having a child removed from class, have counselors available, hold parent meetings, and set expectations and constantly remind students of the expectations through the Viking Block and PBIS lessons.

Mr. Flaherty commented on the 5th Grade MCAS results going from 1% exceeding in 16-17 to 2% exceeding in 17-18.

Principal Cote stated that being positive with staff and having them love their jobs results in positive student behavior, having only 24 referrals and 5 out school suspensions in September.

Wareham High School – Principal Palladino, Assistant Principal Freitas, along with Department Chairs Brent Ruter, Andrea Cannon, Kim Cavicchi, Amy Dion, and Michael Murray reported on the 2018-19 WHS & Coop Goals, Action Steps & Analysis. Principal Palladino thanked his staff, department heads, and school council.

Create an Environment of Agency

In answer to members' questions, the 8th graders into the high school are doing great and we have interventions for the small group of students who are struggling. The dropout rate being down is due to having an alternative program in the district and giving students other options rather than dropping out.

Mrs. Morgan commented on special needs students and the Cooperative School not in the presentation at all nor its principal listed on the report. She asked how many special education students are in the IB program and dual enrollment.

Principal Palladino stated that the special needs students are involved in everything done at the high school and he will get the numbers regarding IB and dual enrollment.

Mr. Flaherty commented on the disconnect of staff survey results with all the success; an all legacy MCAS comparison; math scores in the last 3 years exceeding; and the high school being a good school with plenty of great students.

In response to the cost of the IB tests, the cost is the same as AP tests with a Title IV grant to subsidize the cost to students.
