

Know Your Nature

Spring 2024 Schedule

Mar 22 Winter Tree ID Walk

Join arborist Chance Perks for winter tree ID tips in the pine barrens of the Red Brook Trail Network

Apr 10* Nature Journaling 101

Learn techniques and ideas for keeping a Nature Journal with our Ex. Director Elise Leduc-Fleming.

Apr 22* Citizen Science Talk

WLT's TC Service Member Julia Ledo will discuss the importance of citizen science and how you can participate in local research easily from your phone.

Apr 30 Birds of Great Neck

Join Wareham Land Trust and Mass Audubon for a bird walk at Great Neck Wildlife Sanctuary.

May 18 Foraging with Rachel G.

Learn to identify and forage for wild foods with certified educator Rachel Goclawski at Douglas S. Westgate.

May 24 Plein Air Drawing

Join art enthusiast Julia Ledo for a guided outdoor landscape drawing session at Marks Cove

Jun 5 Nature Journaling

Join us for an outdoor nature journal session with Elise Leduc-Fleming at the Agawam River Trail

Jun 21 Firefly Walk

Entomologist Blake Dinius will lead a nighttime walk in search of fireflies at Douglas S. Westgate

Jun 30 Butterfly Walk

Butterfly enthusiasts Andy and Lauren Griffith will lead a butterfly walk at Great Neck Wildlife Sanctuary

While most programs are free for all, some outdoor programs are 5$ for nonmembers

Not a member? You can join at any of these events!

For more info & to register, visit:
warehamlandtrust.org/category/events/

*Indoor talks will take place at the Wareham Free Library