

WBCN and the American Revolution

Saturday, October 1st at 1:00 p.m.

Wareham Free Library

Join us as Peabody Award Winning Director Bill Lichtenstein comes to Wareham to discuss his documentary about WBCN.

The amazing, untold story of the radical underground radio station WBCN-FM, set against the dazzling and profound social, political, and cultural changes that took place in Boston and nationally during the late-1960s and early-70s. Told through the *actual sights, sounds, and stories of a compelling cast of characters who connected through the radio station, exploding music and countercultural scenes, militant anti-war activism, civil rights struggles, and the emerging women's and LGBTQ-liberation movements.

It's "the incredible, true story of how a radio station, politics, and rock 'n' roll changed everything." Directed by Peabody Award-winner Bill Lichtenstein who began working at WBCN at age 14 in 1970. Copies of the accompanying documentary book will be available for purchase and signing by the author.

Program is free and no registration is required
